

Associate of Applied Science Organizational Management

Emphasis: Emergency Management

Emergencies can come in all shapes and sizes! Today's communities and organizations now demand levels of skill, leadership, and management to meet their changing response needs that were unimaginable just a few years ago!

At Mesa Community College (MCC), our Associate of Applied Science degree in Organizational Management with a Certificate in Emergency Management is designed to give you the competency, tools, and capabilities necessary to successfully meet the need for leadership in today's response organizations!

Why Our Associate Degree?

- Few fields can match the range of importance and fulfillment opportunity potential found in emergency management leadership and response containment.
- You'll learn how to work with others, communicate effectively, and develop traits such as initiative and a desire to attain goals, two of the qualities that are valuable requirements in today's emergency leadership.
- You will acquire the ability to solve complex problems, conduct thorough investigations, and a keen understanding of the endless challenge and opportunities for emergency management that are required to be successful in meeting community needs.
- Day, evening, and online course offerings available.
- Students who successfully complete this AAS occupational degree are eligible for admission to the BAS occupational program at any of the participating Arizona public universities.
- Ready to get started? Turn this card over for detailed course scheduling information.
