Student Loans

Loans are a form of aid that must be repaid, with interest.

Work Study

Work study is self-help aid in the form of an on-campus job.

Grants

Grants are free aid you do not have to pay back.

Grants, work study, scholarships and loans require you to fill out and submit the FAFSA.

FAFSA Free Application for Federal Student Aid
Mesacc.edu/enroll/fafsa
MCC federal school code – 001077

Financial aid based on FAFSA can take six weeks or longer. If you don't receive funds when tuition is due, you need to sign up for a payment plan to avoid being dropped from classes. Check for funding in your Student Center at my.maricopa.edu. Learn more at mesacc.edu/financial aid or stop by Enrollment Services in the Red Mountain Campus Mesquite building.

Enrollment Services

Located in the Mesquite building, you'll appreciate the one-stop environment with a student service specialist guiding you through admissions, placement testing, academic advisement, course registration, financial aid and fee payment. In addition to cashier's, transfer and community education services, there are resources for veterans, career exploration, returning adult learners, study abroad and students with disabilities.

The advisor sat me down, asked my interests, what I wanted to do and looked at the credits I had earned. He helped me more than he will ever know. When it came time to transfer, ASU accepted all my credits and the staff at Red Mountain helped me research and find scholarships.

“I discovered when I transferred from the Red Mountain Campus to ASU, my foundation in math and science was so solid that I was better prepared than most of the students in my classes. And, it wasn't just the science basics I learned, they helped me with my writing and other skills to make my transfer into upper division classes easier.”

Christopher Ryan, MCC Red Mountain alumnus at ASU

“I went to the Red Mountain Campus at first because the classes there were easy to fit in my schedule. I kept going there because I really like the beautiful, intimate setting that made me feel welcome and safe. The 90/30 Northern Arizona University program made it easy to transfer my credits from MCC and I saved a lot of money on tuition.”

Melany Taylor, MCC Red Mountain and NAU alumna
