

Enroll in GED to MCC to get on track for college

GED to Mesa Community College is probably the perfect program for people who are ready to earn their GED and start college. Make an appointment now to register Jan. 12 or 19. Classes begin Jan. 29. The enrollment fee is $20 to $40, depending upon your income, according to a press release.

GED to MCC is better than traditional GED prep classes. GED to MCC lessons focus on GED test skills and personalized skills for community college success. Students can benefit from community resources and support services provided by teachers, counselors, mentors and tutors earn college credit while working on a GED. Enroll in Mesa Community College beginning this summer stay together as a class through the first college semester.