Mesa Community College's dental-hygiene program is looking for patients who have not received dental-hygiene care in the past three years or longer. Requirements of the students' clinical education call for challenges, and instructors are seeking people who have periodontal disease and have never been treated as well as people suffering other conditions such as puffy and bleeding gums.

SIGNING UP

The students will conduct complimentary oral-health screenings from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Sept. 29 at the Arizona School of Dentistry and Oral Health, 5855 E. Still Circle, Mesa. To register: 480-248-8195.

PROCEDURE

Students will screen patients to determine if they have the oral-health conditions they are looking for. Participants will be X-rayed and can get a copy of the X-rays for $20. Although the screening is free, patients selected for the program will be charged for services.

THE CLINIC

MCC's dental-hygiene clinic offers a full range of services utilizing the latest technology at fees lower than private practices charge. Students work under the supervision of licensed dental hygienists and supervising dentists.
