The Gila County Cowbelles recently awarded two $1,000 scholarships. One went to Kylie Ridley in memory of Cowbelles' founding member Laura Mae Holder.

Ridley is enrolled in Barrett Honors College at Arizona State University to study biomedicine to pursue a career as a veterinarian.

A second scholarship donated by the Arizona Cattle Growers Association went to Kelsey Barlow. She plans to pursue a degree in physiology and a career in occupational therapy, enrolling in Mesa Community College.

Gila County Cowbelles supports ranching in Gila County by awarding scholarships to students who plan to further their education in agriculture-related studies, continuing our traditions throughout their lives.

Membership is available to Gila County women who share these interests and wish to join us in our fundraising efforts to provide students with scholarships.
