Earn college credits while immersed in the vibrant culture of México! Your first stop is in one of the world’s greatest cities, México City, where you will fully experience the three cultures that make up modern México: the Aztec, the Spanish, and the Mexican. Your second stop is beautiful Guanajuato, where you will attend classes taught by MCCCD faculty at one of the most prestigious universities in México, the University of Guanajuato.

While taking classes in Guanajuato, you will truly immerse yourself in the culture of México by living with a Mexican host family. So earn college credits, get to know México firsthand, and undertake the educational experience of a lifetime!
Location
Guanajuato is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and was once one of the most prominent mining cities in the world. This provincial state capital is distinguished by twisting cobblestone alleyways, pastel colored houses built along old mining roads, beautiful churches, wonderful temperate weather, a vast subterranean roadway where the Guanajuato River once flowed, and people who are well known for their friendliness and hospitality. Guanajuato is a compact city of about 150,000 people and offers plenty of opportunities to walk, enjoy a casual meal or drink, and visit historical sites that date back to the 1500’s.

Program Features (may vary from year to year)
- Six college credits taught by MCCCD faculty at the University of Guanajuato (see website for current courses)
